

Isles of Darkness – Events Volunteers Guide

The Basics:

- This team of volunteers support the organisation and delivery of national events.
- You may assist with scouting out venues and arranging viewings of new sites to build up a portfolio of national venues.
- You may assist with onsite health and safety at national events, helping with arriving and packing down at events.
- You may assist with creating, purchasing, and arranging set-dressing and props for games.

Where to go for support:

- The Events Lead is responsible for coordinating the events team and making sure you can access any funding or resources needed to effectively deliver your role.
- The member of the society responsible for the overall wellbeing of volunteers and members is the Society Lead.

Training

- We may be willing to provide the volunteers with funding to complete training in relevant techniques to help enable you to complete your role. This can be discussed with the Society Committee.

Please note:

As you are a part of a team of volunteers, you can offer to help with a single aspect of this role or the entire remit as is suited to you.

This role is not elected and has no required length of commitment. Please contact the Events Lead to apply: events@islesofdarkness.com
