

Isles of Darkness – Recruitment & Social Media Volunteers Guide

The Basics:

- This team of volunteers support the promotion of the society and recruitment of new members.
- You will have access to Isles of Darkness Social Media to help keep them up to date with content as required.
- You may assist with promoting the society on our own website and wider UK LARP websites and pages.
- You may assist with written content for the player guides and volunteer policies.
- You may assist with creating and disseminating physical marketing.
- You may assist with other projects as required (ie. photography, filming.)

Where to go for support:

- The Communications Lead is responsible for coordinating the recruitment team and making sure you can access any funding or resources needed to effectively deliver your role.
- The member of the society responsible for the overall wellbeing of volunteers and members is the Society Lead.

Training

- We may be willing to provide volunteers with funding to complete training in relevant social media or similar techniques to help enable you to complete your role. This can be discussed with the Society Committee.

Please note:

As you are a part of a team of volunteers, you can offer to help with a single aspect of this role or the entire remit as is suited to you.

This role is not elected and has no required length of commitment. Please contact the Communications Lead to apply: info@islesofdarkness.com
